THE WELL

Community Food Pantry

Donated items for the Well Food Pantry may be brought to church on Sunday mornings. Your donations are greatly valued and we thank you!

“The Well” is a community-focused ministry that often includes a food pantry among its services to support individuals and families facing food insecurity. A food pantry at The Well typically provides essential groceries and non-perishable items to those in need, helping to alleviate hunger and ensure that everyone has access to nutritious food. The pantry relies from donations from local businesses, community members, and partnerships with food banks to stock their shelves. Volunteers play a crucial role in organizing, distributing, and managing the food supplies, creating a welcoming and supportive environment for those who visit. By fostering a sense of community and compassion, the food pantry at The Well not only addresses immediate needs but also contributes to long-term community resilience. Clearances are not required to volunteer at the pantry, but a Civil Rights Training booklet must be read. If you are interested in volunteering or would like more information, please contact Judy Flemmens or John Sajko.

Glen Rock Community Walk for the Well

Sunday October 11 at 1 PM

Meet at the Hufnagel Library at 1 PM

Take a short walk along the Rail Trail.

Walking is not required for everyone who participates.

You can sponsor someone to walk, show up that day and drop off money you've raised, or send your donation directly to The Well.

For questions or more information, contact Brian Miller at 717-781-5840

The Well serves meals to members of our community every Wednesday. The Well also hosts a food pantry and an after school program that serves the youth of Glen Rock.

Checks can be made out to The Well.

If you wish to simply send a donation, they can be mailed to:
